LIFTING UP THE NEXT GENERATION

By Jessica Erdmanczyk

Have you ever thought of where the Kingdom of God will be on this earth in 20 years? How will people hear the good news of Jesus? What will Christian community look like, and who will lead God's Kingdom into the future? And why should we care anyway?

In many ways, we are counting on our children, youth, and young adults to pick up the baton of leadership and run with it to carry the Great Commission into the coming decades.

Are they ready?

The next generation is the key to our future and they are worth our investment! Each and every one of us have the opportunity to empower our young people right where we are. Pastor Ron is known for saying, "When do I look for leaders? When I dedicate them as babies." Here are some opportunities for you to get involved today in the life-changing work of making disciples who make disciples:
