

Lin Noelle Tidwell

Lin Tidwell, 69, of Canby, OR passed away peacefully on June 15, 2019, after a long battle with Multiple Myeloma.

Family, friends and others whose lives Lin touched are invited to her memorial service to be held at Canby Foursquare Church on 2:00pm on Saturday, July 13, 2019. Casual attire encouraged.

Linda “Lin” Sue was born in Shelton, WA to Jack and Georgia Smith on May 12, 1950, and was one of five children. She spent her early years in Longview, WA. She graduated from RA Long High School in 1968 and earned her Associates Degree from Lower Columbia College. She later moved to Vancouver, WA and there she met and married Steve Tidwell in 1992. Together they moved to Canby in 2007. She held numerous jobs, highlighted by working at Mentor Graphics in Wilsonville, OR. She enjoyed pursuits of arts and craft and was a gifted photographer. She found the most joy in her love of the Lord, followed closely by time spent with family and friends.

Lin is survived by her loving husband Steve Tidwell, her daughter Stephanie Manuel (Wood), son Braden Wood, as well as, her siblings, her grandchildren, and her beloved dog. Lin had a generous heart that led her to “adopt” countless grandchildren and forge many special friendships.

Memorials may be given to the Leukemia & Lymphoma Society.
